With The Red Cross.

Governor James D. Black, went to Lexington Tuesday, where he delivered the address of welcome to the delegates of the Red Cross Society of America. Governor as usual delivered one of those kind of addresses that touched the audience, and it is said that he held them spellbound during all the time of his address. He said among other things that we were a patriotic people, that while there were men among us that could not go to war, yet there was a work for all and that we could show our patriotism best by standing behind the boys who do go with the aid of our money and other services. He returned yesterday evening to his home.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Write for Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and 64-page book, "How Cardui for Women," sent in plain wrapper.

Obituary

He said he could view the Heavenly prospect and was anxious to go, asking his friends and relatives to go home with him.

We give to his family and friends our tender sympathy in this their hour of bereavement, gently reminding them that their loss is his gain.

Not far above our earthly bed
The bow of Primrose o'er spreads the sky
Infinite mercy touched his head
To lift our thoughts to Him
on high.
Sallie Lyttle Hatton.
